TWENTY-SEVENTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

FROM OUR PRINCIPAL, JACK COREY

Dear Parishioners:

Veterans Day is coming up next month and our Student Council wanted to thank parishioners who are serving in the military. I offered them my weekly column this week to gather names needed to proceed with this project. Below is a request from our Student Council.

Saint Antoninus Parish School would like to thank our parishioners (or their children) who are serving in the U.S. military. Saint Antoninus Parish School (led by student council) will be collecting items to put into care baskets to send to those serving in the military. If you know or are related to a parishioner serving in the military, please be sure to fill out the flyer in the bulletin or send an email including the person's name, rank, address, and dates of service to staneewsletter@live.com by Friday, October 17. He or she does not have to be serving overseas. Anyone working as hard as our military deserves our special thanks so please contact us! Thank you for your help.

—Saint Antoninus Student Council.

HOLY SPIRIT PRAYER GROUP

The Holy Spirit and the Word of God are bound closely together. Without the Holy Spirit, we wouldn't have the Scriptures and without the Scriptures, we wouldn't know that there is a Holy Spirit. As the principal author of the Bible, God sent the Holy Spirit to the individual writers as they wrote the texts that we have today in our Bible. Therefore, it is very important to allow the Holy Spirit to interact with the Word of God so that we can get at the rich meaning that can empower our lives. How do we do this? There is a process that Father Al Lauer developed that helps ordinary lay people discover the Lord's message to them.

The Holy Spirit Prayer Group is continuing the Scripture Program with two teachings on this coming Tuesday evening. Janet Willig will speak about "THE HOLY SPIRIT" and Judy Erwin will speak about "THE WORD." Come and join us to increase your understanding of this interaction. All are welcome to come to a single teaching or to any part of the seminar. NEW TIME in Chapel at 7:00 PM on Tuesday.
