THE EPIPHANY OF THE LORD

Things I've Seen and Heard Musings of Fr. Bryan Reif

Now that the rush and busyness of Christmas and New Year's is behind us, and as we begin to go back to our normal routines of daily life, regular work schedules, and daily school, let us take some time to give thanks. It is important for us to give thanks to God for the great mysteries which we have just celebrated at Christmas, Jesus' Incarnation into our world as a human being come to set us free from sin and death. This is the greatest Christmas gift that any of us could ever have or receive, the gift of Jesus Christ. Let us also take some time to give thank for the other and many blessings we have received in our lives that are perhaps more apparent at Christmas than at other times of the year, the gift of family and friends, relatives far and near, and the chance to see loved ones at Christmas that perhaps are not seen that often. Let us all give thanks for the material gifts that we have received, which are outward expressions of appreciation, love, kindness, and ultimately are meant to reflect the love of Christ to us.

I also want to thank everyone who in anyway contributed to our celebration of the Christmas Season here at St. Antoninus, from church decoration, music, readers, ministers of Holy Communion, Martha's, servers, ushers, greeters, and especially all of you who came to celebrate the Birth of Our Lord at Mass. Thank you for making St. Antoninus the parish that it is, and the place of prayer that it is. May the Christ Child, who was born in Bethlehem, continue to reign in our hearts.

Take good care,
Fr. Bryan
