EASTER SUNDAY

Things I've Seen and Heard Musings of Fr. Bryan Reif

The Lord is Risen! Alleluia! On behalf of St. Antoninus Parish and School, everyone on the staff in both the parish and school offices, all our teachers, Mr. Jack Corey our principle, Deacon Bob, Fr. Mick, and myself, I wish to extend to each and every one of you a very Holy and Happy Easter! May the blessings of Almighty God be yours in abundance as you celebrate this great Solemn Feast of the Resurrection of Jesus Christ. This day, this Feast, the Rising of Jesus Christ from the dead is the heart of our Faith, it is the promise that this world is not all there is, but that Christ's promise of the world to come is true. Where He has gone, we too hope to follow. The Resurrection of Jesus Christ and the empty tomb have flung open the gates of Paradise. Let us be joyful this day that Our God has set us free!

Happy Easter, and Take Good Care,

Fr. Bryan

2015 Catholic Ministries Appeal (CMA)

Archbishop Schnurr sends his thanks to everyone from Saint Antoninus Parish who has made or pledged a contribution to the 2015 Catholic Ministries Appeal. If you have not yet made your pledge, please consider doing so this week. These local Catholic ministries (fund for retired priests, Chaplains, Catholic Social Services, to name a few) depend on our help each year. To make a pledge securely online, please visit CatholicAppeal.net. Our parish goal is $52,498.00. As of Monday, March 30, 231 families have pledged 73.44% of our goal. Thank you!

WAYS AND MEANS COMMITTEE

St. Antoninus is in the process of revamping this committee under a new name, Parish Advancement. The Parish Advancement Committee would be a group of six to eight volunteers primarily responsible for fundraising events for the Parish.

Currently this consists of selling local gift cards, our annual 250 Lotto, the Kroger Community Rewards program, The Remke Market Caring Neighbors Reloadable cards and the annual Main-A-Vent. If you are looking for a great way to get involved in the Parish and give of your time and talents, this is an important ministry and one where you can make a huge positive impact. For more details please contact Steffany Reid, our Business Manager at 922-5400 x 3, Monday through Friday between 8:30AM to 3:30PM or at reid@saintantoninus.org. Thank you in advance for taking an interest in this ministry!

The Marthas are a group of women of the parish who regularly see to it that the church is cleaned and properly prepared for religious services. They perform their work each Thursday morning following the 8:00AM Mass; their job is completed by about 9:30AM. After their work, the women enjoy fellowship with coffee and doughnuts. New members are always welcome. For more information, please call Ginny at 922-1527.

SAINT VINCENT DE PAUL SOCIETY

Today as we celebrate the feast of Easter we find the challenge of also seeing and believing the resurrection that comes through our own lives of self-sacrifice which brings new life to others. Your gift to the Society of St. Vincent de Paul will show the love of the Risen Christ by bringing your love to those who live in fear and doubt, loneliness and dread

This weekend's Gospel reading brought to mind the home visits we do as Vincentians. Would I visit a leper? Would I be hesitant? Would I be relaxed and enjoy my visit? (or would I worry about bedbugs??! ;) – a video for some perspective and your enjoyment: <http://redeemedonline.com/leper/>

FROM OUR PRINCIPAL, MR. JACK COREY

Dear Parishioners,

Hallelujah! He is risen! All of us here at St. Antoninus School wish you a happy and holy Easter season. Our faculty, staff and students are using this break to enjoy the company of our families as we rejuvenate ourselves. The school will reopen Wednesday, April 8, 2015.

Over the last few weeks, I have had numerous reasons to be thankful for the people in our parish. Particularly, I want to thank all those who helped out our parish drama club with their production of Beauty and the Beast, the Boy Scouts for helping set up for the Main-A-Vent, and all the volunteers who helped out at the speech contests held at Seton High School.

HOLY SPIRIT PRAYER GROUP

Christ is Risen, Alleluia! The prayer group will reflect on several of the Scriptures concerning the Resurrected Christ. Because Christ is alive, everything is changed. He has overcome death itself and His promises will hold true for us also – the promise one day to join Him in everlasting happiness. Come and join us as we celebrate this wonderful feast on Tuesday evening in the Chapel at 7:00 PM
