DIVINE MERCY SUNDAY

FROM
FR. CHRISTOPHER R. ARMSTRONG,
PASTOR

There is an insert for today's bulletin about the canonization of Popes John XXIII and John Paul II. Both of their prayers at the end of their short biographies remind us that, in the end, our lives, each one of our lives, is a miracle of God's grace. It is not a coincidence that Pope Francis chose to canonize them on Divine Mercy Sunday, which is also today. Each Pope proclaimed the Merciful Love of God to a humanity so wounded by sin. We ask for their prayers as we seek to imitate their profound trust in God. Saint John XXII pray for us! St. John Paul II pray for us!

TRAVELING CHALICE

DIVINE MERCY SUNDAY

FROM OUR PRINCIPAL: JACK COREY

Dear Parishioners:

Last Friday, our second grade students participated in Emmaus Day as part of their final preparation for their First Communion next week. For those of you who have been part of Emmaus Day in the past, you know what a wonderful event it is. Please keep our second graders in your prayers as they continue to prepare to receive Holy Eucharist for the first time next Sunday.

The day before we went on Easter Break, we had COSI come and visit our school. COSI personnel and parent volunteers transformed our gym for this occasion into a number of mini science stations. Thank you to the PTO for arranging for this to happen, to Karen Cromer for taking charge of this endeavor, and to all the volunteers who helped make this event highly successful.

Do you have a favorite saint? Perhaps, it's St Jude, St Catherine of Sienna, St Teresa of Avila, or St Anthony. This coming Tuesday evening members of the prayer group will gather to share about their favorite saints. Never before have we had so much access to information about the saints as we do today because of the internet. Information about even a little-known saint can be found, and his or her life be revealed. Saints are the heroes of the past who lived valiant lives in the face of many difficulties. They can inspire us on our journey and give us insight about how to live a more dedicated life. Come and share with us the saint that has meant so much in your life. In Chapel 7:30 PM.
