HOLY FATHER'S MISSION INTENTIONS

Saint Peter and Paul, apostles

FROM
FR. CHRISTOPHER R. ARMSTRONG,
PASTOR

Father Armstrong is on Sabbatical. He will return to the office on Thursday, August 7.

Things I've Seen and Heard Musings of Fr. Bryan Reif

Dear friends, on June 23rd, I arrived back at St. Antoninus to serve as temporary administrator of the parish for a period of six weeks while Fr. Armstrong completes his sabbatical. It is good to be back with you. Thank you to all of you for your kind and gracious “welcome back.”

This weekend, we celebrate the Feast of Sts. Peter and Paul, apostles. These two apostles are the two pillars upon which the Church is built. Peter, the apostle to the Jews, and Paul, the apostle to the Gentiles. These two great saints are responsible in no small way for the spread of the Faith throughout the Mediterranean world in under a century. Peter, our first pope, as well as Paul both died in Rome a martyr's death, Peter crucified upside down on the Vatican hill, and Paul beheaded. Let us celebrate these two great witnesses to Christ with great solemnity.

We are also in the midst of the Fortnight for Freedom. During these two weeks, the Church throughout the United States is spending time praying for the preservation of religious liberty, which is under assault in a number of ways in our times. I invite you to continue to pray for the Church, the bishops, priests, and deacons, and for the preservation of religious liberty in our nation. If you wish to do something more than pray on your own, St. Ignatius is having a Holy Hour for Religious Freedom on July 3rd.

Take Good Care,
 Fr. Bryan

In today's Gospel, Jesus sends out the disciples to meet the needs of others. His admonition to them is the same challenge He makes to us: “the gift you have received, give as a gift.” See Matthew 10:8

ATTEND MASS ON JULY 4TH— PRAY FOR FREEDOM OF RELIGION

We invite everyone to attend Mass on Friday, July 4th, at 8AM. Please come to pray for the preservation of the freedom of religion in our country.

HOLY SPIRIT PRAYER GROUP

Since we are aware of the great need for prayer for our country, our government, and the world, and as we struggle with the many problems and trials that we face as a nation, the Prayer Group comes together to pray the Patriotic Rosary on Tuesday evening. What better way to celebrate our Independence Day than to pray to Mary, the Immaculate Conception, to whom our country is dedicated!

The well-loved “Patriotic Rosary” is a beautiful prayer that calls upon the Lord and His mother for blessings and guidance for each branch of government, each state in the union, and for all of our citizens. Interspersed in this prayer are inspirational readings from our founding fathers. Come and join us in this powerful prayer for the many needs that we are facing – both as the people of God in the Catholic faith and as American citizens. We are confident that prayer can reverse our culture of death and avert other trials and catastrophes. In Chapel, at 7:30 PM.

THE RIGHT TO PRACTICE

USCCB Fact Sheet 2014

FAITH IN DAILY LIFE

RELIGIOUS LIBERTY UNDER ATTACK

A Concrete Example

The Green family began what became Hobby Lobby Stores, a retail chain of arts and crafts stores, out of a garage in the family's home in Oklahoma. The Hahn family likewise began Conestoga Wood Specialties, a cabinet-making business, out of a garage in the family's home in Pennsylvania.

What can you do to ensure the protection of religious freedom at home and abroad?

The U.S. Bishops have called for a Fortnight for Freedom from June 21 to July 4, 2014. Please visit www.fortnight4freedom.org for more information on this important time of prayer, education, and action in support of religious freedom!

The Greens are evangelical Christians who strive to operate Hobby Lobby in a manner consistent with biblical principles. Hobby Lobby pays full-time employees at almost double the minimum wage, offers generous health benefits, and allows employees ample time off from work. The Hahns, who are Mennonite, similarly strive to operate Conestoga Wood in a way that honors their faith.

Both the Hahns and the Greens believe that life begins at conception, and their religious beliefs prohibit them from facilitating abortion. Unfortunately, a mandate from the U.S. Department of Health and Human Services (HHS) would force the Greens and the Hahns to cover certain drugs and devices that can end life after conception. Coverage of these drugs and devices is required in the companies' health plans under threat of potentially fatal fines by the federal government.

The Greens and the Hahns were forced to sue the federal government to vindicate their rights under the U.S. Constitution and federal law to exercise religion. They argued that Americans do not give up their freedom when they open family businesses.

The U.S. Supreme Court heard oral arguments in both cases in March of this year, and a decision is expected in late June (likely during the Fortnight for Freedom), at the end of the Court's term.

At stake is the freedom of families like the Greens and the Hahns, as well as Catholic families who operate businesses in accordance with their faith, not to participate in funding or facilitating potentially life-terminating drugs and devices.

The U.S. bishops have voiced their strong support for families like the Greens and the Hahns. The bishops filed a friend-of-the-court brief with the U.S. Supreme Court supporting Hobby Lobby and Conestoga in their challenge to the HHS mandate. The bishops explained that they oppose "any rule that would require faithful Catholics and other religiously motivated business owners to choose between providing coverage for products and speech that violate their religious beliefs, and exposing their businesses to devastating penalties."

The bishops have repeatedly voiced their concern for faithful people in business so that they can continue to live out their faith in daily life. Please pray that the Supreme Court will uphold this basic right!
