TWENTY – EIGHTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

Getting to know the Lord

Rev. John Amankwah, Ph.D.

Not too long ago, I had an encounter with someone in a neighboring parish. The person asked me about my experience with the Lord. “Fr. John, how do you know the Lord?” As simple as the question may seem, it has very deep implications. The question made me stop, reflect, and respond to the questioner. I told the person, I know the Lord through my encounter with people every day in my life. I continued saying to the person that everyone I meet every day carries the face of the Lord, bears the hands and feet of the Lord. Then I told the person a story that changed my life. In 1983, I visited a German priest friend in Germany. He was a pastor in a small parish. The church building was not big but moderately large enough for the parishioners. In the evening after my arrival, I went with him to Mass. When I entered the church, what struck me was that everything in the building was immaculate white except the crucifix that hung from the ceiling on the altar. It was charcoal black. It drew my attention! It was rugged. The hands of Jesus on the cross were broken; the legs were dangling and the head was hanging so low that it almost touched his chest. I asked my friend the priest why the parish could not buy a beautiful crucifix for that immaculate interior of the church. He turned to me and said: “Can you read the German inscription on the wall above the crucifix? I said yes. I then read it. It translated as: “Yes, I look rugged. I no longer have hands and feet like you! My head is crushed for you. Henceforth, be my hands and feet, and be my face to others!” I was mesmerized. I took in a deep breath and looked intently at my friend and said: “I understand.” The crucifix was dug from the rubble of a small church after the Second World War and the parishioners decided not to buy a new crucifix but used the old one they found buried in the rubble. We walked in silence to the sacristy and got ready for Mass.

Since that time, my life as a priest changed. I realized that I am the hand and feet of Jesus and I carry his face just as others do. I therefore see the face of Jesus in other people’s face. My life has changed. That is how I know the Lord. It does not matter whether the person I meet is rugged, beautiful, disfigured, handicapped, rich, poor, etc. We all carry the face of Jesus and we are his hands to touch others to bring them healing and joy; we are his feet to stand firm in the faith; we are his very breath to revive others who are burdened with the vicissitudes of the world. Be then the face of the Lord and you will know him. Be his hands, and you will heal others. Be his feet and you will strengthen others in their faith.

TWENTY-EIGHTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

FROM OUR PRINCIPAL, JACK COREY

Dear Parishioners:

Last week I copied a letter and included a flyer from the student council asking for your help to identify parishioners who are currently serving in the armed forces. We would like to ship care packages to them around Veterans Day. If you know of any parishioner who is serving, please contact us at stanewsletter@live.com. Please include the parishioners name, military address, branch of military, rank and dates of service.

While touring the school the second day of his parochial administration, Fr. John received a wonderful welcome from our kindergarteners. They were in the computer lab when Fr. John walked in. Fr. John asked the children if anyone knew who he was, every hand went up. Fr. John was amazed that all of our kindergarteners knew who he was.

Unbeknownst to him, when the students logged into the computer, his picture was on our website where Fr. Armstrong's picture used to be. Of course they all noticed Fr. Armstrong's picture had been changed. They had just had a discussion on who the man was on our website right before he came in. Talk about providential timing!

Saint Antoninus Parish School would like to thank our parishioners (or their children) who are serving in the U.S. military. Saint Antoninus Parish School (led by student council) will be collecting items to put into care baskets to send to those serving in the military. If you know or are related to a parishioner serving in the military, please be sure to fill out the flyer in the bulletin or send an email including the person's name, rank, address, and dates of service to stanewsletter@live.com by Friday, October 17. He or she does not have to be serving overseas. Anyone working as hard as our military deserves our special thanks. So please contact us! Thank you for your help.

—Saint Antoninus Student Council.
