Things I've Seen and Heard

It is my pleasure to announce to the parish that we have a new person joining our staff. Julie Scott is a person of many talents, who not only has experience in areas financial, but also has recently completed her studies at the Athenaeum of Ohio. I have asked Julie to join our staff as our Assistant Business Manager, and also as a Pastoral Associate. Her duties as Assistant Business Manager will encompass working with Steffany Reid, our Business Manager in matters pertaining to finance, accounting, and bookkeeping. Her presence as Assistant Business Manager will help our parish continue to implement internal control procedures recommended by the Archdiocesan Finance Office in our last audit. Julie's duties as Pastoral Associate will encompass areas of pastoral ministry which include but are not limited to bereavement, baptismal preparation, the new evangelization, and support for widows and widowers, developing a ministry to the separated and divorced, and coordinating ministry to the sick, suffering, and shut-ins. In these areas, Julie will collaborate with Deacon Bob, and myself, and will work with our wonderful volunteers. Julie has many gifts and talents that will assist her in her dual-position here at St. Antoninus, and I am pleased to welcome her to our staff.

We are truly blessed here at St. Antoninus, and we continue to pray for God's guidance and the grace of the Holy Spirit as we continue to proclaim the Gospel here in our parish. Thank you, to all of our staff, volunteers, and parishioners for all that you continue to do to make this parish what it is, a holy place dedicated to the work of the Lord Jesus.

On another topic, last Friday, we said good-bye to our (now graduated) eighth grade students. These wonderful young women and men celebrated Friday morning with Mass, then a special breakfast, and then came back in the evening for graduation in the context of Vespers (Evening Prayer). We wish our graduates well, and we send them off to their high school experiences to come, but we remind them: Even though you may no longer walk the halls of St. Antoninus School, St. Antoninus Church is still your home where you are always wanted, welcome, and loved, and we hope to see you often. May God Bless you and keep you. Study hard, and never forget that the Lord truly loves you!

Take Good Care,
Fr. Bryan

DECREE ON CHILD PROTECTION OF THE ARCHDIOCESE OF CINCINNATI

VIRTUS MEETINGS WILL BE HELD, IN THE CHURCH UNDERCROFT, ON Tuesday, June 2, at 7:00pm.

ALL EMPLOYEES AND REGULAR VOLUNTEERS ARE REQUIRED TO ATTEND ONE VIRTUS TRAINING MEETING. YOU MAY ATTEND HERE OR AT ANY OTHER LOCATION WITHIN THE ARCHDIOCESE. PRE-REGISTRATION IS REQUIRED AT: www.virtus.org. MAKE SURE THAT THE "USER'S LOCATION" YOU CHOOSE DURING REGISTRATION IS ST. ANTONINUS – EVEN IF YOU ATTEND VIRTUS AT ANOTHER LOCATION. PLEASE BE SURE TO WRITE DOWN YOUR VIRTUS USER-ID AND YOUR PASSWORD. YOU WILL NEED TO USE THEM MONTHLY.

If you volunteer at St. Antoninus and would like a pre-paid code to pay for the background check, do not start the background check when you register for VIRTUS. Instead, send an e-mail to Deacon Bob Schroeder at: schroeder@saintantoninus.org. He will send the pre-paid, one-time-use code to you via e-mail.

Deacon Henry Babin of the Diocese of Jackson, Mississippi, will be with us on June 13 & 14 to appeal for help for the Diocese of Jackson, the largest diocese east of the Mississippi River. The Catholic population is around 50,000. The Diocese of Jackson has 65 counties, 29 of which do not have a resident priest. An appeal came recently to hire a sister for on of these priest less counties. The Diocese had to say, "We are sorry. There is not enough money." And so, that leaves another county without Catholic presence of any kind. Please help them make the church present in a diocese, which is less than 3% Catholic?

Saint Anne Parish is located in the city of Carthage, in rural central Mississippi. They are the only Catholic parish in Leake County taking in 584 square miles with a county population of 26,000. It is a multicultural parish community where representatives of six different cultural groups are actively participating in the life of the parish. Among the approximately 600 parishioners, six languages are spoken: English, Spanish, Choctaw, Visayan, Vietnamese and Mam which is the language of the Mamas Indians from Guatemala. About 90% of their parishioners live at or below the poverty line. The parish is not self-supporting now and with the daily increase in folks earning the minimum wage, their financial status will remain the same. The parish depends on the assistance of out-of-state donors for nearly one-half of their annual income.

FROM OUR PRINCIPAL, MR. JACK COREY

Dear Parishioners,

This week starts a beginning and an end.

This week Erica Steinbeck starts as our new secretary. She comes to us from The Children's House where she was the director. Mrs. Steinbeck spent twenty years at The Children's House and brings a lot of great skills to our school. As a graduate of Seton and with children currently in Catholic Schools, she knows the value of Catholic Education. Be sure to stop in and welcome Mrs. Steinbeck.

This week is also an end. It is the end of the school year, but much more than that it is the end of an era for many of our teachers. At press time, the following teachers have let the public know that this year will be their last: Miss Delaney, Miss Cassidy, Mrs. Burke, Mrs. Wolff, and Mr. Besse have all announced their retirement publicly. Between these teachers they represent over 150 years of working with children.

To celebrate the years these teachers have dedicated to our children, the parish will be holding a celebration on Sunday, June 14, in the undercroft after the 11:30am Mass. Please join us to celebrate, reminisce, and say, "Thank You" for all they have done for our students, our families and our parish.

HOLY SPIRIT PRAYER GROUP

The authors of the Scriptures wrote from their own background and culture. They, of course, included the things that were familiar to them – clothing, money, ways of speaking, the lands that surrounded them like the desert and the fertile fields, farming, and orchards.

Because we come from a different culture and background, sometimes we don't understand the nuances of the sacred writings. A book written by John Wijngaards entitled "Handbook to the Gospels" goes into many of these things with explanations that are very revealing to us. Tuesday evening, we will get into a group discussion about these differences with Mary Handermann using this book for the basis for our study. Please join us as we look into these matters that will help us understand the Bible in a more profound way. In Chapel, at 7:00 PM.

SAINT ANTONINUS WIDOWS

All widows of the parish are welcome to attend a lunch at Ron's Roost (3853 Race Rd.) at 12:30PM on Tuesday, June 16. Meal is individual choice, individual payment. RSVP before June 11, to Donna Vitt at 922-0833.

THANK YOU FOR RETIRING TEACHERS

Please come and enjoy a treat in the Undercroft on Sunday, June 14, after 11:30AM Mass, as we say THANK YOU to our retiring teachers for all the "smart cookies" they created at St. Antoninus and wish them "sweet" success in all their new endeavors.

ST. VINCENT DE PAUL SOCIETY

As we celebrate the mystery of the Trinity we also realize the mystery of how much God loves and cares for us each day. Believing in this... our lives can then overflow in thanksgiving and praise. In May we have a 5th Sunday and there is a separate envelope for contributions to the Society of St. Vincent de Paul. You can find these special envelopes in the pews. Please be generous with your gift. Please make checks payable to "Society of St. Vincent de Paul".

ADULT SOCIAL GROUP Communion Service will be on Monday, June 8, at 12:30PM in the chapel. Luncheon will follow in the undercroft after the service. Please pay $9.00 per person before June 3rd. Our guest speaker will be Lisa Mulvany from the P & G Heritage & Archive Center.

St. Antoninus School Box Kit order forms are now available for next year. Order forms are being sent home with each student. Forms are also available in the school office. Please contact Robyn Mullen at rcmullen4@gmail.com with any questions.
